What's New?

- Chapel Programs are continuing for the rest of the summer but on a slightly different schedule now that staff are beginning to leave for school, jobs, and other responsibilities for this fall. Many thanks to our volunteers who have served faithfully and already headed out this past weekend – Megan Siegle, Jedidiah English, Alexandra Ramey, Griffin Adams, Timothy Hsu, Danny Dieckmann, and Virginia Corsello.
- Week Five: Pastor Arthur Fox with wife Olivia and son Isaac ministered at the Chapel alongside the church group from Franklin Square on Long Island, NY. Toward the end of the week, we hosted Covenant OPC from Orland Park, IL, led by Pete Onnink, who donated several tables and stools for the back of the Chapel and were a great encouragement to the staff.
- Week Six: Pastor Steve McDaniel came for most of the week with a group from Providence OPC in Mantua, NJ. Later on, several other ministers and youth from the sister churches, Immanuel OPC in Medford, NJ and Immanuel OPC in Bellmawr, NJ, came to help out with the programs as well.
- Week Seven: Pastor Clark Brooking and Pastor Tim Flora from Living Hope Presbyterian in Maryland came with a group of youth. The same week, we hosted New Song, a choral group from Geneva College, for Tuesday evening, which was a great time of music and fellowship. Later that Thursday, we enjoyed a second visit of the summer from Stevie Prather from Maryland who helped out with half of the evening program with some of his friends and family also in attendance.
- Week Eight: Pastor Justin Rosser came with a group from Matthews OPC in North Carolina as well as the English family, who had several family members and friends serving on staff. The Matthews group brought along a contractor Jeremy who directed a number of much needed renovation projects—replacing two toilets and three sinks with vanities in the Chapel apartments, as well as fixing the shed and a shower for the manse belonging to Calvary Church. We are very grateful for the generosity and hard work of everyone involved.
- Week Nine: This week we have Pastor Bill Slack from River of Life and a large number of his family along with some friends at the Chapel. We look forward to a week of a lot of great music and fellowship. We are also honored to be visited by Carol Jordan and her friend from Covenant OPC in Amsterdam, NY, who is here to use her gift in drawing caricatures to bring people in to the Chapel to learn about Jesus. We are thankful for all of the ministers, groups, and visitors who visit us on a daily and weekly basis to encourage us in the Lord and assist us as we strive to bring glory to Jesus.
- Our appreciation goes out to Janet Birkmann from OPC Short Term Missions (STORM) for coming in July to take pictures, talk to the staff, and check out the latest news to prepare a helpful report for the denomination. Thank you also to Nancy Hoffman for donating a printer and ink for the staff.

Prayer Requests:

- Pray for wisdom for the Director and other leaders as they work together as the schedule continues to change and the summer comes to a close.
- Pray for the visiting groups and individuals who serve alongside us for the next month, both programs and September concerts.
- Pray for the city's tourists and internationals that they would see Jesus through us.
- Pray for the individuals who have turned to Jesus in repentance and faith.

Needs:

- Paper products and cleaning supplies for use throughout the rest of the summer.
- Healthy nonperishable goods for staff meals.
- A functional washer and dryer for the Chapel apartments.
- Work teams for this fall, especially during September and October, to help us clean up and shut down the buildings for the season.

Are you able to help?

Please contact Pastor Jim or Elizabeth if you are able to help, have questions about any of the details, or would like to provide ideas or advice. We are always happy to assist and grateful for your faithful prayers and ongoing support!

*And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age."
Amen. (Matthew 28:18-20)*
